

Character 1

Hotel Murder Mystery

You are a guest in a hotel and there has been a murder! You need to share your clues about other guests with your group to guess who the murderer is.

(You and your group are not the murderer.)

You are the guest wearing blue. This is your situation. Read it to your group.

"I was turning into the hall where my hotel room is on the fourth floor when I saw something horrible. At first I thought it was a drunken guest on the floor, but then I saw blood everywhere! It's a murder! I ran down the stairs and met another guest. The first guest I met, who is wearing green, told me they heard a scream. The second guest I met, who is wearing yellow, didn't hear anything, but they may have seen things that can help us find the killer."

These are your clues. Read your clue to your group and listen to their clues in order. Take notes and try to build a picture of the other hotel guests by using these clues.

1. The body that I found was covered with blood.
2. The dead body that was on the fourth floor was a man dressed in black.
3. I saw a woman with blonde hair on the same floor as the body.
4. I saw the man with the moustache, who was wearing white, holding a knife.
5. The woman that I saw, who had blonde hair, was carrying a red bag.
6. The red bag that the woman was carrying had two knitting needles sticking out of the top.

STOP! Discuss who you think is the murderer.

Character 2

Hotel Murder Mystery

You are a guest in a hotel and there has been a murder! You need to share your clues about other guests with your group to guess who the murderer is.

(You and your group are not the murderer.)

You are the guest wearing green. This is your situation. Read it to your group.

"I had just finished dinner on the first floor and I was returning to my room when I heard a horrifying scream. I rushed out of my room to the stairs and met a person wearing blue who was crying. This person tells me that they saw a dead body. We run down the stairs together and meet another person who is wearing yellow. This person doesn't know about the murder, but they may have seen things that can help us find the killer."

These are your clues. Read your clue to your group and listen to their clues in order. Take notes and try to build a picture of the other hotel guests by using these clues.

1. I saw a man that had a moustache.
2. The man I saw, who had a moustache, was on the first floor.
3. The man with the moustache, who was on the first floor, was wearing white.
4. I also saw the angry young man that was running. The angry young man that was on the second floor had red stains on his shirt.
5. The man with the moustache, who I saw with a knife, was near the kitchen.
6. In the dining room earlier today, there was a man dressed in black with a woman who had dark hair and a white bag. They had an argument.

STOP! Discuss who you think is the murderer.

Character 3

Hotel Murder Mystery

You are a guest in a hotel and there has been a murder! You need to share your clues about other guests with your group to guess who the murderer is.

(You and your group are not the murderer.)

You are the guest wearing yellow. This is your situation. Read it to your group.

"I was walking down towards the first floor when I bumped into two people on the stairs. They quickly started talking to me, because one of them found a body on the fourth floor. The person who found the body is wearing blue. The other person, who is wearing a green bathrobe, heard a scream. The person that heard the scream is not crying, but looks very shocked. Let's share our clues to guess the murderer."

These are your clues. Read your clue to your group and listen to their clues in order. Take notes and try to build a picture of the other hotel guests by using these clues.

1. I saw a young man that looked angry.
2. The young man that I saw, who was angry and sweating, was on the second floor.
3. The angry young man that I saw, who was on the second floor, was running.
4. I saw a man who was dressed in black earlier today in the dining room.

STOP! Discuss who you think is the murderer.

5. The angry young man that was running on the second floor was holding a broken wine bottle.

STOP! Discuss who you think is the murderer.

6. I also saw the woman in the dining room that was with the man dressed in black. She was knitting a yellow hat.

STOP! Discuss who you think is the murderer.