Key concepts

Bottom up vs. Top down

We are up here.

Two are big and blue.

It is in the blue one.

The little one is funny.

Is it big and red?

Find the big one now.

READING STRATEGIES

PREDICT

Determine what you think will happen in the text. Use the title, text, and illustrations to help you.

VISUALIZE

Create mental images of the settings, characters, and events in the text.

QUESTION

Stop and ask yourself questions to see if the text makes sense. Reread the text if you need more information.

CONNECT

Think about what you already know about the text. Find ways to relate the text to yourself, other texts, and the world around you.

IDENTIFY

Determine the author's purpose. Find the important details, the main idea, and the themes of the text.

INFER

Use clues in the text and your own knowledge to fill in the gaps and draw conclusions.

EVALUATE

Think about the text as a whole and form opinions about what you read.

Text-to-Self

A connection between a book and your life
or experience

"I have acorns in my backyard!"

Make, Take & Teach

Text-to-World

Oak trees can be found in many regions across the U.S.

A connection between a book and events in the real world

Make, Take & Teach

Text-to-Text

A connection between a book and another book or text that you have read

"I read about this kind of a spider in another book too!"

Make, Take & Teach

Text-To-Media

It reminds me of something I have seen or heard before...

How can we teach reading strategies?
~ by modeling (demonstrating).

‘Think aloud’ is a way to do this.

‘Think aloud’ strategy for modeling predicting.
